All private educational institutions covered under ESI Act: HC

Chennai, July 30: All private educational institutions will come under the purview of the ESI Act and will be treated as an establishment for all purposes under it, the Madras High Court has ruled.

The order was passed by an all-women bench

Sathyanarayana, Justice Anita Sumanth and Justice P T Asha which dismissed a batch of petitions moved by the educational institutions.

The petitions sought to strike down a November 26, 2010 order of the Tamil Nadu government extending the provisions educational institutions.

The petitioner-institutions contended that the state government in its 2010 order has exempted government and aided institutions from the purview of the act and this amounted to discrimination between state-run and private
